Dear Senator Potter:

You will recall our conversation in May concerning Miss [redacted] At that time, I talked with Miss [redacted] and she was also interviewed in our personnel office.

Miss [redacted] indicated that she had several other interviews scheduled but would complete her application forms upon her return to [redacted] We have not heard from her since that time and conclude that she may have found suitable employment elsewhere.

I appreciate your bringing Miss [redacted] to my attention. If she gets in touch with us at a later date, we will give her application every consideration.

Sincerely,

Signed

Allen W. Dulles
